RE: Women's Advocate

The parties recognize that female employees may sometimes need to discuss with another woman matters such as violence or abuse at home or workplace harassment. They may also need to find out about specialized resources in the community such as counselors or women's shelters to assist them in dealing with these and other issues.

For this reason the parties agree to recognize the role of Women's Advocate in the workplace. The Women's Advocate will be elected from amongst the female bargaining unit employees. The Advocate will meet with female members as required, discuss problems with them and refer them to the appropriate agency when necessary.

The Union agrees to provide access to a confidential e-mail that can be maintained by the Women's Advocate and that is accessible for female employees to contact the Women's Advocate. As well, the Company will provide access to a private office so that confidentiality can be maintained when a female employee is meeting with the Women's Advocate.

The Company and the Union will develop appropriate communications to inform female employees about the advocacy role of the Women's Advocate providing a contact number to reach the Women's Advocate. The Company will also assign a management support person to assist the advocate in her role.

Domestic Violence:

The parties recognize that an employee sometimes faces situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that may affect their attendance or performance at work. The parties agree that when there is adequate verification from a recognized professional (i.e. doctor, lawyer, professional counselor, intake worker from a women's shelter), an employee who is in an abusive or violent personal situation will not be subjected to discipline without giving full consideration to the facts in the case of each individual and the circumstances surrounding the incident otherwise supportive of discipline. This statement of intent is subject to a standard of good faith on the part of the Company, the Union and affected employees, and will not be utilized by the Union or employees to subvert the application of otherwise appropriate disciplinary measures.

Once proven documents have been submitted and approved by the Company and the “Women’s Advocate”, an employee who is a victim of domestic violence is entitled to take up to ten (10) days leave, either intermittently or in a continuous period, as well as a continuous leave period of up to seventeen (17) weeks. Domestic Violence Leave must be for specified purposes relating to the domestic violence. For example, the leave is required to seek medical attention or to seek legal or law enforcement assistance.
